Changes to the E Rewards Payment Structure

Due to taxation implications regarding the possible trade that can be earned from MyERewards, we have made some necessary changes to the E Rewards formula to ensure your cash component is not eroded away by taxation. The changes take effect from May 1st, 2003.

E Rewards members can still earn $40 cash and $10 trade for every member they successfully refer to E Banc Trade. Also, the Consultant's payment schedule remains unchanged, allowing members to earn a percentage of transaction fees paid, once the requirements are met.

The new E Rewards Payment Schedule:

	Old Structure		New Structure
	Cash	Trade	Cash	Trade
Referral Payments
Member joins giving your account number as referrer	$40	$10	$40	$10
The member that you referred, refers another member	$30	$20	$5	$5
When that member refers another member	$20	$30	$10	$10
When that member refers another member	$10	$40	$15	$15
When that member refers another member	$0	$50	$20	$20

This is an excellent opportunity to bring extra funds into your business, or for sponsorships to supplement their fundraising activities. If you want to know more about becoming an E Rewards member, please contact head office or your local licensee for a brochure, or visit our website on www.ebanctrade.com.

It is with great fanfare and drum rolls that I wish to announce that we have now reached the 7000 member mark, and we welcome new licensees in Townsville, Gympie, Coffs Harbour, Sydney and Dalby. With these new licensees on board, we are continuing to create the network necessary for all members to be able to access products and services throughout Australia.

As time goes on, it is becoming more and more obvious that members and licensees from other existing trade companies are continuing to see the benefits of E Banc Trade, and becoming part of our network. It is that envisaged by Christmas we will have in excess of 10,000 businesses, making E Banc Trade the 2nd largest, confirmed trade exchange in Australia. I wish to congratulate everyone who has been involved in this growth, both members and the team in E Banc Trade offices around the world, because without them this amazing achievement would not be possible.

Our online auction site, Bid'n'Buy, has been steadily improving thanks to the feedback from our members and it is proving to be a successful tool to further assist member businesses — enjoy.

And in finishing, I would like to invite anyone wanting to make a conversion to E Banc Trade dollars at an 11% commission fee, to do so now. As of June 1st, the fee for conversions will be 16.5%, GST inclusive. Currently, a conversion fee does not apply to Bartercard and BBX, however we will be charging a fee for BBX very soon. Please direct your queries to jenny@ebanctrade.com or call Jenny at head office on 07 5437 7220.

Payment of Fees

E Banc Trade has the lowest transaction fees of any Trade Exchange in Australia – just 4.95% - and they are only charged when members spend their trade dollars. You can earn trade dollars without incurring any fees at all. We also offer our members the flexibility to choose their own trade percentage. E Banc Trade is making the trade industry more equitable and in return, we ask that members pay their transaction fees as they fall due. Once transaction fees reach $20 or above in any month, fees are due and payable within 7 days of receipt of your tax invoice. Tax invoices are mailed to hardcopy members during the first week of the month. Online members receive their tax invoice by email on the 3rd of the month. Tax invoices are only sent when fees have been generated in the previous month. Members who have elected to pay their fees by direct debit will have the amount owing debited from their nominated account on the 21st of the month. Member can settle their account by paying in person at head office, forwarding a cheque to head office, or paying online using a credit card.

If you have incurred transaction fees during the month and do not receive a tax invoice early in the next month, please contact head office, as your address or email contact may need updating.

When fees are not paid, the following procedure is implemented:

When outstanding fees reach $100 and are overdue 30 days, the member receives a courtesy reminder by mail and payment is requested within 14 days. Where a member is experiencing difficulty in making payment, they are invited to contact Head Office to discuss repayment options.

When outstanding fees of $100 and above are overdue 45 days, and no contact has been received since the first letter, the member is again contacted by mail requesting their urgent attention to settle the account within fourteen days. If payment is not received within this period, the member's account/s may be suspended until all fees are paid.

When outstanding fees of $100 and above are overdue 60 days, and the member has not contacted head office, they are advised by mail that their account/s with E Banc Trade have been suspended and no further trading is to take place. If contact is not made to Head Office within seven days from the date of the letter, the matter is referred to our Legal Department for the initiation of proceedings to recover all outstanding fees and costs.

If any member is experiencing difficulty making payment on fees owing, please contact the Accounts Department at Head Office to make alternative arrangements. We will do our best to assist you.

Want to advertise your goods and services in the Head Office publications?
You can now submit your articles online

Head Office publishes its newsletter, the E Banc Trader, during the first week of every month. A regular Bulletin is also emailed to all online members mid month. All members are welcome to promote their goods, services and events free in both of these publications and now it is even easier to do so. Simply visit our website, select the newsletter link, then follow the link to the article submission page. You can still forward articles by email to publications@ebanctrade.com, or fax them to 07 5437 7230 if you wish.

Please note that due to our large membership numbers and the demand for advertising, we are unable to advertise a member's business in every consecutive issue. Members are also requested to specify a trading percentage they will offer for the month of the publication.

Deadlines: Articles for the bulletin must reach head office by the 10th of the month
 Articles and images for the E Banc Trader must reach head office by the 20th of the month.

E Banc Trade Supports Rock 'N' Roll Championships

The 4th Annual Rock 'n' Roll Dancesport Championships held in Buderim over the Anzac Day weekend were an extravaganza worth seeing with twirls, spins and lifts to amaze all who attended.

Competitors arrived from all states of Australia except the Northern Territory. Costumes were magnificent, with sequins, satin and petticoats, and the guys went all out to match the girls.

This annual event promises to be even better next year, so make sure you don't miss it. E Banc Trade was proud to be a major sponsor of such a professional and highly organised event.

A big congratulations to Sandra and Ray Ivory and all the volunteers who put this great weekend together.

Meg Preece, E Banc Trade Head Office
